Our first graders are writers! This week we worked on stretching out words to spell them. We listen and tap sounds & then record all the sounds we hear. We learned how writers can “unfreeze” characters in their stories by making them move and talk. Many of our writers added quotes to their stories and speech bubbles to their illustrations.

Author Study
This month we will highlight books by Mo Willems. We will be giggling along with Elephant & Piggie and Pigeon too! We kicked off our unit with Knuffle Bunny and Knuffle Bunny Free.
